About the course

This 2-day intensive course will introduce and explain the new 2017 FIDIC suite of construction contracts including how they compare with and differ from the widely used 1999 (first) editions. Big changes have been made in the 2017 Books compared to the 1999 editions and this course will help you to understand them and to deal effectively with the new Books as they start to get used on projects. Active participation is encouraged throughout the course, supported by case studies.

Your FIDIC accredited course instructor will be William Godwin QC, member of the FIDIC Updates Task Group responsible for writing the new editions.

Who should attend?

This course is aimed at providing systematic and practical guidance to anyone engaged in international projects. It will appeal to:

- Representatives of contractors
- Employers
- Developers
- Project sponsors and funders
- Lawyers
- Plant and equipment manufacturers
- Engineers
- Project managers

What will be provided?

All those attending and completing the course will be provided with:

- 2 nights' room only accommodation on 20 and 21 January 2020
- Refreshments and lunch on both days
- A certificate verifying their participation in this FIDIC accredited event
- A course booklet containing the PowerPoint presentation used
